HUMAN DEVELOPMENT SCOTLAND

Tayside and Fife Group
Programme for 2016 – 2017

Theme: Connections

17 September 2016	John Shemilt: Human Relations, Feeling and Attachment in Psychoanalysis and Psychotherapy: An Inside Story
22 October 2016	Susan Maciver: Making Connections through Supervision
19 November 2016	Fiona Feilberg: Connected or Disconnected? The Impact of Social Media.
21 January 2017	Mary Smith: Poetry Sharing. Participants please bring a poem on Connections
18 February 2017	Molly Ludlam: Connecting with the Internal Couple
18 March 2017	Linda Treliving: Connections
20 May 2017	Laila Rashid: Connections and Empathy in the Analytic Space
17 June 2017:	Joyce Watkinson: Connecting and Supporting

The Tayside and Fife Group meets once a month in Perth. The group is open to members, associates and invited guests. Its aim is to provide a supportive and inclusive learning environment for the discussion of both theory and practice. Those who attend are from a variety of professional backgrounds but have in common a commitment to psychodynamic thinking. If you are interested in attending any of the presentations please contact Susan Maciver 07957 579110.