

CAP/TWCYP* INTENSIVE STUDY EVENT

Thinking about learning difficulties: old paradigms and new, from a psychodynamic and societal perspective, historically and today

With Annie Baikie

Wednesday 6 November 2019, 13:30 – 16:00

Human Development Scotland, 4th floor, Victoria Chambers, 142 West Nile Street, Glasgow, G1 2RQ

PROGRAMME

13:30 – 14:45 Presentation

14:45 – 15:00 Tea/coffee

15:00 – 15:45 Small group discussion

15:45 – 16:00 Plenary and close

COST – £30

(Open to everyone, no cost for HDS academic students and associated staff)

**Spaces are limited - online booking is essential to secure your place - click here****

The day will be a mixture of presentation and large group discussion, with time for questions and reflections and small discussion groups.

There will be a particular emphasis on whether children, young people and adults with learning disabilities who experience mental health/emotional difficulties are at this time further discriminated against due to lack of resources generally and specifically within health, education, social work and the legal system.

BIOGRAPHY – ANNIE BAIKIE

Annie Baikie is a Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist who has had a lifelong interest in learning difficulties as a specialist youth worker, special education teacher, drama and movement therapist and as a child and adolescent psychotherapist in CAMHS and within the specialist learning disability service at the Tavistock Clinic.

*Human Development Scotland delivers several academic courses including the Professional Doctorate and Clinical Training in Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy (CAP) and MSc in Psychoanalytic Observation & Reflective Practice: Therapeutic Work with Children & Young People (TWCYP)